

PATCH TEST TRAINING TELECONFERENCE

Saturday 17 October 2020, 9:00AM - 12:30PM

CONTACT DERMATITIS IN TIMES OF COVID-19

The team from the Occupational Dermatology Research and Education Centre at the Skin Health Institute are offering a shortened version of the Patch Test Training Day to be held by teleconference. Not surprisingly, we will be highlighting all things COVID.

Topics to be presented:

- 9.00-9.15 What is causing the rash on my hands? A case report highlighting the importance of making a diagnosis
- 9.15-9.30 Why aren't my hands better? A case report highlighting the role of patient education
- 9.30-10.00 Skin problems with masks
- 10.00-10.30 Questions and break
- 10.30-11.00 Covid complications: Problems with handwashing and the use of hand sanitisers
- 11.00-11.30 Updates on our new allergen series – cosmetic, paediatric and vulval
- 11.30-11.45 Benzalkonium chloride – contact allergy, allergic contact dermatitis and granular parakeratosis
- 11.45-11.55 What's causing the rash on my face? An interesting case in Covid times
- 11.55-12.15 Questions

Cost:

Nurses and registrars $120.00
Dermatologists $150.00

For further information, contact:

Amanda Palmer
e: apalmer@occderm.asn.au
m: 0408 306 705

Book of presentation notes:

Please specify when registering whether you would like a PDF of the book, or a hard copy to be mailed to you.

Please note:

All teleconference details will be emailed to you closer to the event date.

For further information, or to register, please visit www.skinhealthinstitute.org.au/ptt2020